NAME: Sisters of St. Joseph
ADDRESS: 1725 Brentwood Road
          Brentwood, NY 11717
PHONE: 631-273-1187
WEBSITE: www.brentwoodcsj.org
DESCRIPTION: Located in Brentwood, NY, The Sisters of St. Joseph are the largest order of Catholic women religious on Long Island with more than 500 members, and have a 160-year tradition of ministering wherever they are needed including the Dioceses of Brooklyn and Rockville Centre, the New York Archdioceses, and in communities located in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Florida, Indiana, New Jersey, Washington, D.C., Appalachia, California, Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, and Brazil. The Sisters of St. Joseph operate five schools for girls in New York - Fontbonne Hall Academy, The Mary Louis Academy, Sacred Heart Academy, St. Joseph H.S, Bishop Kearney H.S., as well as Academia Maria Reina in San Juan Puerto Rico. At their Brentwood campus, the Sisters operate The CSJ Learning Connection for Adult Education, Maria Regina skilled nursing facility, their Organic Garden to promote ecological conservation, and the St. Joseph's Renewal Center for spiritual renewal. Providence House and Hour Children, founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph, are programs to help incarcerated and formerly incarcerated women and their children in Brooklyn, Queens and Westchester.

PRINCIPAL: Sister Helen Kearney, CSJ.
President

FOUNDED: 1650 LePuy, France

MINISTRY: Educators from elementary to the university level, social workers, health care professionals, lawyers, medical doctors, parish ministers, administrators and spiritual directors.

MISSION: The Sisters of St. Joseph believe in the power and presence of a loving God active in our world, for all time, and in this time. United with all who minister with us, we seek to bring God's healing and reconciling love where there is the greatest need.

CONTACT: Tara McGuire Rogers
Director of Communications
631-273-1187 x126
rogerst@csjbrentwood.org
Sisters of St. Joseph
Office of Mission Advancement
1725 Brentwood Road, Building 4
Brentwood, NY 11717